

See Balance Of Payments Surplus Next Year

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — U.S. Treasury Secretary George P. Shultz said today that he expects the U.S. balance of payments to show a basic surplus next year for the first time in more than a decade.

Shultz also told the annual meeting of the International Monetary Fund and World Bank that the U.S. trade balance should show a surplus next year after being in deficit since 1971.

"Surpluses in both our trade and basic payments position now appear in sight for next year," said Shultz in his first forecast of 1974 surpluses for the two key economic indicators.

The prospect of a surplus in the U.S. balance of payments is "indispensable for full restoration of confidence" in the dollar and "for implementing any lasting monetary reform," he said.

Shultz said that, "with good will and intensive technical work," a comprehensive agreement reforming the international monetary system can be ready "as soon as next spring."

At a meeting last weekend, Shultz and the other finance ministers of the Committee of 20 leading trading nations set July 31, 1974, as the target date for such an agreement.

Shultz also made these major points:

—He rejected a suggestion by the IMF's new managing director, Johannes Witteveen of the Netherlands, that governments move gradually toward restoring fixed exchange rates while the debate on monetary reform continues. Shultz said the U.S. government expects to see the present system of floating rates continue until the reform agreement is ready.

—The United States still opposes the distribution of the IMF's special drawing rights to poor nations as aid. He said this threatens the drawing rights' main purpose: Replacing the dollar and gold as the major reserve asset financing world trade.

—The Nixon administration will recommend to Congress that it put up $1.5 billion of the $4.5 billion the World Bank is seeking for its development-loan program for the three years beginning next July.

Another speaker at the meeting, West German Finance Minister Helmut Schmidt, predicted that next year "we will be approaching the era of a stable rate of the U.S. dollar reflecting its true value."

On monetary reform, Schmidt said he favored the use of several currencies to prop up a troubled currency, tight controls on the amount of world money that is created and the forcing of countries with balance-of-payment surpluses to change the value of their currencies.

The United States also favors a requirement that a nation revalue its currency when its reserves get too big. But Japan's finance minister, Kiichi Aichi, said at the conference that the idea might be difficult to put into practice.

The U.S. proposal would use monetary reserves as an automatic international indicator of when currency changes are needed. But Aichi commented: "In no country has a computer been appointed minister of finance."

Skylab Crewmen To Return Home This Evening

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Skylab 2's astronauts return from man's longest space adventure today, guiding their slightly disabled Apollo ferry ship back to earth with a tricky firing technique.

Alan L. Bean, Owen K. Garriott and Jack R. Lousma are returning from a 59½-day voyage during which they traveled more than 24 million miles and gathered a wealth of scientific data on the earth, sun and man.

Although the entire firing procedure that the Skylab 2 astronauts must use has never been tried before in space, flight controllers are confident it will pose no problem for the spacemen.

It is necessary because two of four steering rockets on the Apollo ferry ship have developed leaks. Techniques have been worked out and tested in ground simulators to fly the Apollo home with the two good jet thrusters.

"We approach the entry time with full confidence that the two jets can do the job," said Glynn Lunney, manager of the Apollo spacecraft office. "One is sufficient to bring them home. Even if we had a problem with both, we have alternate thrusters that could be used."

Bean, Garriott and Lousma are to detach the Apollo from the 85-ton Skylab station in late afternoon, heading for a splashdown in the Pacific Ocean at 6:20 p.m. EDT.

The jet thrusters will be used to guide the Apollo to a point where the craft's large main engine will be fired to pull it out of orbit.

The carrier USS New Orleans waits in the recovery zone about 225 miles southwest of San Diego, Calif. The ship is to maneuver close to the spacecraft and hoist it on board with a crane.

Before retiring for his last night in space, commander Bean told mission control on Monday: "We've enjoyed it up here. It's been a fantastic experience. It's incredible how much you can do if you've got good support from people on the ground."

Dr. Royce Hawkins, chief of the astronaut doctors, said he expects the space travelers "will be very unsteady" as a result of their long stay in space weightlessness.

Fuel Rationing Urged

GLENEDEN BEACH, Ore. (AP) — Interior Secretary Rogers C. B. Morton says he is urging President Nixon to ration heating oil this winter, but even if he does "there are going to be people who are going to be cold."

Morton was joined in his call for the rationing of heating oil by John A. Love, Nixon's special energy adviser. They made their remarks in appearances before the Western Governors Conference.

The two men said the proposals they had advanced to Nixon dealt only with rationing on a geographic basis and did not contemplate rationing to the consumer. Morton said he expected Nixon to decide on the proposals in two weeks.

He spoke of a plan that would allocate heating oil to perhaps 14 or 15 areas of the country. The idea then would be to have government offices in each of the areas to keep track of specific problems.

Love, a former Colorado governor, said the nation will experience "very real difficulties" in the energy field for the next three to five years.

"We must, as Americans, realize the depth and seriousness of this problem," Love told the 12 governors whose annual conference at this seaside resort is devoted exclusively to the energy crisis.

Both Love and Morton appealed to the "American spirit."

"This country is not going to hell in a handbasket because this winter we're probably going to be as much as five to seven per cent short" on heating oil, Morton said.

"There's going to be a lot of political writing about it. But I know that neighbors are neighbors, and I know there are many, many ways we can join together and get around the problem in this short term."

Morton said he expects the administration to establish the regional offices so hardship cases could be dealt with quickly.

The ultimate step in an administration contingency plan would be rationing oil to customers, such as in wartime. But both Morton and Love said that kind of action is not contemplated at this time.

Both emphasized that controls would alleviate an over-all shortage.

"Remember, we're managing a shortage," Morton said. "The (rationing) plan doesn't in any way increase the supply of oil."

Morton said the nation can work itself out of its reliance on oil imports from the politically unstable Middle East by developing the West's vast coal reserves for generation of electrical power.

Morton said a Middle East official asked him recently what the United States was going to do about the rising cost of imported oil.

"I looked him right in the eye and I said, 'We're going to develop one half of the world's coal supply because we got it and you ain't.'"

"And he said, 'Is that so?'"

"And I said, 'That's so.'"

Gasoline, Postage May Cost More

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gasoline prices probably will increase this week and postal rates may soon follow, but there is growing evidence the country's high interest rates may be about to start down.

Leading to this speculation on interest rates was a decline Monday of more than a full percentage point in the interest of U.S. Treasury bills, which have been favored by many investors in recent months because of their high yields.

Edward M. Roob, an assistant secretary of the Treasury, attributed the decline to a feeling that the Federal Reserve Board may be easing the tight credit policy it has followed since early this year in an attempt to control inflation.

If federal credit policy is easing, it would result in lower interest rates on virtually all kinds of loans, ranging from home mortgages, to consumer loans, to bank loans for big business.

In other economic developments Monday:

—The Cost of Living Council said it would make every effort to meet a request from President Nixon that it allow gasoline prices to increase this week instead of next, as the council originally had proposed.

Council sources indicated the retail price of gasoline would be allowed to increase by one or two cents per gallon to reflect higher wholesale costs.

—Postmaster Gen. E. T. Klassen proposed a two-cent increase in the cost of airmail and first class postage, meaning an airmail stamp would increase from 11 cents to 13 cents and a first-class stamp from eight cents to 10 cents.

"The cost-price squeeze has affected us as much as it has affected the rest of the economy Taxpayers are going to have to pay the price," Klassen said. Congress would have to approve the increases, which would also apply to other classes of mail.

—The head of the Office of Revenue Sharing said that revenue-sharing payments to states and local governments are helping to ease the property tax burden in many parts of the country.

Director Graham W. Watt also said that more than half of recent revenue-sharing payments are being spent for operating and maintenance expenses.

The Federal Reserve Board declined to say whether it has decided to relax its tight credit policy.

Roob commented, "It's not my province to speculate for the public what's going on. But the point is — of this kind of feeling — that as far as its effect on the market, it's true."

The Treasury Department announced Monday that the interest rate on its regular weekly issue of 13-week bills declined to 7.331 per cent Monday, down from 8.786 per cent a week earlier. It was the lowest rate since June 25.

Treasury bills, which are sold in minimum denominations of $10,000, are bought by banks and other institutions and also by individual investors.

The announcement that President Nixon wanted the Cost of Living Council to increase gasoline prices came as some service stations closed down to protest the administration's gasoline price ceilings.

A White House spokesman said the council already had decided to increase gasoline prices by Oct. 2, but the President wanted to "get a decision out this week."

New Warden Announced At Lucasville

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A veteran federal prison official will take the reins at troubleprone Southern Ohio Correctional Facility near Lucasville, state officials confirmed Monday.

A spokesman for the Ohio Department of Correction and Rehabilitation said Joseph Havener, 55, of Denver, Colo., will succeed W. J. Whealon, who resigned.

Havener was expected to assume the post Oct. 1.

Havener has been career development officer at the Denver City and County Sheriff's office since 1971. Before that he was deputy director of the Washington D.C. Department of Corrections, and had served as a consultant to the Federal Bureau of Prisons and the American Corrections Association.

Bernard Barton has been acting superintendent at the facility since Whealon's resignation more than a month ago.

Whealon, citing health problems, left the office after a series of disruptions at the prison climaxed in the shooting deaths of two guards.

Barton was to return to his job as director of institutional operations for the department.

Havener could not be reached for immediate comment.

Hunt Believes Baldwin Betrayer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt testified today that he suspects one of his own Watergate bugging crew was a double agent who betrayed the wiretappers to police.

Hunt told the Senate Watergate committee that "the most likely subject" to have been a double agent was Alfred Baldwin, who monitored the Watergate wiretap at Democratic headquarters for the conspirators, but who later testified against the others at their trial in January.

Former FBI agent Baldwin was never charged in the case.

Hunt's double-agent theory was drawn out in questioning by Republican Sen. Edward J. Gurney of Florida.

He said he suspected Baldwin for a number of reasons. Hunt said Baldwin was hired without much checking on his background. Baldwin has relatives active in the Democratic party and a girl friend who worked at the Democratic National Committee headquarters, Hunt said.

He also said he has never come up with a satisfactory answer to why the Washington police plainclothes squad was in the area of the Watergate building when the police caught the wiretappers in the early morning hours of June 17, 1972.

He also said Baldwin, who was equipped with a two-way walkie-talkie, failed to warn the burglars of the presence of police in the building. Hunt said he thought that Baldwin should have known something was wrong when the plainclothes policemen started turning on lights in their initial search.

"There was activity that should have been seen by Mr. Baldwin," Hunt said. He said that after the arrests, Baldwin disobeyed Hunt's orders by taking incriminating wiretapping gear and logs to the home of James W. McCord Jr., one of the men arrested at the Watergate.

"The series of events that night, taken in their totality ... have suggested to me for many months that we might have been, as it were, trapped by information having been provided beforehand to local law-enforcement authorities by a member of our unit," Hunt said.

Some Meat Prices In Ohio Drop As Supplies Increase

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Some meat prices reportedly have dropped across the state, mainly because consumers are buying less, food retailers and wholesalers said Monday.

Fisher Foods of Cleveland reported a 21 cent drop in chicken prices, a seven cent decline in beef and marginal declines in pork this week.

A spokesman for another Cleveland chain, Heinen's, said poultry and lamb prices have decreased in the last two weeks. He said he expected beef prices to go down, too.

Patrolman Hits Discrimination

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—A sex discrimination complaint has been filed against the Cleveland police department by Patrolman Timothy Horval. He claims women get better jobs.

Horval asked the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Monday to require the department either to limit policewomen to the women's bureau or require the women to have the same duties as men.

Horval, who has been on the force four years, says women don't get assigned to unpleasant jobs such as are given new men and are not given dangerous assignments.

Food store owners in central and southern Ohio, however, indicated little change in beef and other food prices since the price ceiling on beef was lifted three weeks ago.

Several retailers reported full meat freezers and problems getting customers to purchase meat, especially the more expensive cuts.

"My icebox is full of the higher-priced cuts," said the owner of an independent meat market. "The public is going to hamburger, lunch meat and cheeses."

"It's caused the packing houses to drop their prices. In my case they've dropped 10 cents on beef and three to four cents on pork already. It's beautiful," he said.

Cleveland stockyards reported Monday that cattle were selling for $42 per hundredweight, compared to $60 per hundredweight under the price ceiling.

A livestock official in Cincinnati said prices on steers and heifers have dropped $5.50 to $6 across the state.

Ed Wilke, president of the Ohio Meat Packing Co. in Columbus, said prices were lower because cattle surpluses built up during price controls are now being sold on the market.

"The law of supply and demand is working," said Sam Giamo, director of public affairs for the Fisher Foods. "There is a plentiful supply of meat and the prices are falling."

TV Board Discusses Bond Levy; Brings Back Chocolate Milk

Due to the reaction of the students and the waste of the white milk at the schools in the Teays Valley District, the board has resolved to resume serving chocolate milk.

The board had decided at the last meeting to discontinue chocolate milk and serve white milk exclusively. It is a state law that one carton of milk must accompany the lunch and the principals reported that the milk was being wasted. Chocolate milk will be served beginning Oct. 1.

One of the reasons for the discontinued use of the chocolate milk was the fact that it was apt to spoil the appetite of the students. The milk break was moved to an earlier time in the morning at the last meeting and it was reported that this has improved the lunch program.

The board resolved to transfer a number of appropriations internally. Superintendent Benis Lutz stated that this procedure is routine since appropriations are estimated at the beginning of the fiscal year.

Three staff members have acquired additional credit for training and experience. The board amended the salaries accordingly. Two of the teachers have gained enough hours to reach the 150 hour level on the salary schedule.

The Board resolved to increase the hourly wage of part-time custodian, Mrs. Mertins, from $1.85 to $1.95 because of prior experience in this line of employment.

Two elementary physical education teachers who must travel from school to school were compensated for mileage. A maximum of $250 is appropriated for this matter.

Approval was made for three staff members to travel to workshops during the next month. Howard Weaver and Frances Labuda will attend the All-Ohio Guidance Conference to be held at the Ohio State fairgrounds Sept. 27-28. Mrs. Mary Lee Bendycki will attend a yearbook and photography workshop in Columbus one day in October. Mrs. Bendycki is the yearbook advisor and will take some of the yearbook staff along with her.

Release of a kindergarten student was approved. On student wishes to attend kindergarten in the Westfall District and since transportation and tuition have already been taken care of, the board authorized his release.

The board authorized the implementation of the newly enacted emergency medical authorization form as amended in House Bill 168. Every student must have one of these forms on file.

Discussion was held on the language laboratory program. The board and language teachers will meet with the language lab suppliers next Monday to discuss equipment for the project.

The budget for buses and replacement of windows and doors were discussed. Estimates for replacement of doors at Ashville Elementary School and remaining window replacements will be presented at the next meeting. The board authorized the securing of quotations for other work needed in all three elementary buildings.

A survey will be taken to document the reimbursement for children of federal employees.

Sewer problems at Ashville School was discussed. Any action of the storm and sanitary sewers must be in conjunction with the village of Ashville.

An organizational meeting will be held Oct. 2, at 7:30 at the high school building for the bond levy campaign. Any parties interested in the levy or interested in promoting the campaign are urged to attend.

Superintendent Lutz informed the board of the status of the gas and oil prices. The prices as well as supply remains unstable.

A final discussion concerned the request of possible use of the ball diamond at Walnut Elementary. Some of the area people are interested in starting a little league team. Preliminary approval was given by the board but final action will be stayed until plans are completed. The insurance and other arrangements will have to meet the board's approval.

Advertising of the old items which need to be disposed of was authorized by the board. These items are to be listed and advertised.

Scioto and Walnut PTO groups will have Open House on Oct. 8, at 7:30 p.m. The Board adjourned with plans to meet at the next regular meeting Oct. 22.

Campaign Begins Today

The Business Division, of the Community Fund, will kick-off its campaign today in efforts to contact the approximate 300 businesses in Pickaway County.

The division has set $6,500 for its 1974 goal in the fund.

Serving as Chairman is Michael M. Molloy with John Born Jr. serving as assistant division chairman.

MICHAEL M. MOLLOY

Captains participating in the campaign are, Kenneth Speakman, Keith Tomlinson, William Mundy, Donald Spurgeon, Larry Eveland, James Fausnaugh, Donald Eitel and Robert Henthorn.

Students from Circleville Bible College will be assisting in the campaign.

The 1973-74 Campaign for Circleville and Pickaway County Division will kick-off Sunday.

Davis Competes In Regional 4-H Contest

Roger Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis, Route 2, is competing in the eastern regional 4-H tractor operators contest at the Virginia State Fair, Arlington, Va.

A member of the Untouchables 4-H Club, Roger won the county and the state tractor operators contest.

He was accompanied to Arlington by his parents and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tarbill. Tarbill is his 4-H adviser.

His trip was sponsored by Hill Implement Co., Landmark, Pickaway Grain, Pickaway Farmers Club and Hamrick Youth Memorial Fund.

Locked Brakes Cause Accident

Eighteen-year-old Harold V. Van Gundy, Route 2, Amanda, received minor lacerations to his right arm when he was involved in a single car accident 8:50 p.m. Monday on Route 22 east.

Van Gundy was travelling east on Route 22, just east of East Ringold-Southern Road, when he approached a motorcycle.

Applying the brakes, the left front tire locked, causing Van Gundy to lose control of his car. The auto went off the right side of the highway rolling over, demolishing the auto.

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy James Fite investigated the accident.

Deaths

MRS. HELEN L. PLYMIRE

Mrs. Helen L. Plymire, 63, Washington C.H. was dead on arrival at Fayette Memorial Hospital, Monday afternoon.

Born Sept. 4, 1910, in Pickaway County, she was the daughter of John M. and Lena Johnston Porter.

She was a retired beautician, member of Grace United Methodist Church, WSCS, charter member of BPW Club and member of National Organization of Beauty Operators.

Survivors include her husband, Herbert F. Plymire; one son, John, U.S. Route 22, Washington C.H.; one grandchild; one brother, Harry Porter, Mt. Sterling; two sisters, Mrs. Kathleen Gerhart, Columbus and Mrs. Hazel Vincent, Williamsport.

The funeral service will be held 1:30 p.m. Thursday at Gerstner-Kinzer Funeral Home, Washington C.H. with the Rev. Allen Puffenberger officiating. Burial will be in Washington Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home 2-9 p.m. Wednesday. BPW memorial service 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Her Cool Dude Cools It

DEAR ABBY: I met a really cool guy who travels, and he makes this town once every two weeks. Tex and I dug each other right away, and I might as well tell you we ended up at his motel on the second date.

Every time he'd come to town, we'd go to his motel. I really grooved this dude, Abby. He even told me he loved me.

Well, imagine how hurt I was when I found out his brother got married right here in this town last week and Tex took another girl to the wedding.

Wouldn't you think if Tex liked me well enough to have me at his motel every time he got to town he should have asked me to that wedding?

Should I ask him how come I'm good enough to go to bed with, but I'm not good enough to take to a family wedding?

HURT
DEAR HURT: Don't ask him any questions. The answer is obvious. Just because a man says: "I love you," doesn't mean he means it. And doesn't the fact that he took another girl to a wedding where his friends and family would be present tell you something?

DEAR ABBY: There is a poem by Ogden Nash that I would like to find, but all my efforts led me nowhere. It goes something like this:

"He drinks because she nags, he thinks.

She nags because he drinks, she thinks."

Then it goes on to say that: "In fact, he's a sot and she's a shrew."

I am going crazy trying to track it down. Can you help me, please?

AVID CHICAGO READER

DEAR READER: My reference library contains 15 volumes of Ogden Nash and I can't find it either. But I'll bet one of my readers out there can.

DEAR ABBY: My pet peeve is the way some daughters in law pick on their mother in law.

I refer to that silly crab who griped because her mother in law always got to sit next to her son (daughter in law's husband) when they rode in the car.

She wrote: "As my husband opens the car door for us, I step back and let his mother get in first. This puts her next to my husband, which I think is MY place."

Well, for Pete's sake, gal. Get in the car first if you want to sit next to your beloved. He can help his mother in, and close the door, which is really the best spot because then she can view the scenery, and isn't squeezed between two bodies with nothing to look but the hood of the car and the pavement ahead.

More power to you! Me? I'm a mother in law, and prefer to sit near the door and let my daughter in law sit next to my son.

I've noticed, too, that after a mother in law becomes a grandmother, she no longer is despised, but suddenly becomes a wonderful baby sitter. What a difference a child makes.

Just wait, young wives, one day you'll become mothers in law, too. And then God help you!

Cereal Leaf Beetle May Pose Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — A relatively new grain pest in the United States, the cereal leaf beetle, may soon pose a threat to valuable spring-planted wheat crops in the upper Midwest, according to Agriculture Department entomologists.

The beetle was first discovered in this country in 1962 in southwestern Michigan. It now ranges into 12 states and into the Canadian province of Ontario.

Although the beetle so far has been primarily found in oats, the insect can attack other small grains. Although its spread has been mainly to the East and Southeast from the pest's original domain in Michigan, USDA experts say there is a good chance it may move at an accelerated rate into the West and Northwest.

"As it moves in those directions, it does raise some possibility of danger to spring-planted wheat, including the crop in durum areas," one entomologist told a reporter.

Apparently, according to the experts, the beetle tends to avoid fall-sown winter wheat and prefers the more succulent young plants of oats and spring wheat when it begins its de-

Phone Cables Are Sashed In Kentucky

ASHLAND, Ky. (AP) — Vandals slashed two cables of the strikebound General Telephone Co. Monday, temporarily interrupting service to about 185 telephone customers in the Ashland area.

In the past two months, there have been 60 reports of damage to cables by shots or slashings, a company spokesman said. No arrests have been made.

The incidents Monday involved one cable on East Tygart Road in South Shore northwest of Ashland, affecting about 120 customers, and a smaller cable in the Greenup area, affecting about 65 customers.

Service was expected to be restored Monday night.

Earlier Monday, service had been restored to about 450 customers left without service when four cables were cut in the Ashland area Sunday.

A cable serving about 250 customers was cut on U.S. 23 outside Ashland, while three cables in the Greenup area were slashed. Some 200 customers were out of service in Greenup.

Since 1,200 members of the Communications Workers of America went on strike July 23, supervisory personnel have been handling company operations at Ashland, Morehead, Lexington and Hazard.

The workers walked off their jobs in a dispute over terms of a new contract. There have been no negotiating sessions scheduled.

Another Brown In State Position

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Atty. Gen. William Brown has named Ronald Boyd Brown cochief of his office's special litigation section.

Brown, 32, formerly a Cleveland attorney, joins Thomas V. Martin in the section, which handles major and complex cases.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, that the members of each house concurring therein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state in the manner prescribed by law at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1973, a proposal to amend section 36 of Article XII of the Constitution of Ohio to read as follows:

ARTICLE VIII
Section 2. The board of commissioners created by section 8 of Article VIII of the Ohio Constitution shall, forthwith upon the adoption of any amendment, proceed to issue and sell, from time to time, bonds or notes of the state in such amounts of face value as are necessary to provide for the payment of such bonds or notes as may be required to pay the compensation and the expenses of administering this section. The aggregate face value of such bonds or notes shall not exceed three hundred million dollars. The full faith and credit of the state is hereby pledged for the payment of such bonds or notes.

All bonds or notes so issued shall mature in not more than fifteen years after the date of issue, and shall be payable in not less than two years after the respective dates thereof. The bonds or notes shall mature according to schedules set forth by the treasurer, and shall not mature more than fifteen years after the date of issue. No bonds or notes shall be issued or sold after the first day of April, 1977.

All bonds or notes shall bear interest at such rates as the commissioners determine and shall be payable semiannually. Such bonds or notes, and the interest thereon are exempt from all taxes levied by the state or any taxing district thereof. At the option of the commissioners, the bonds or notes may be issued subject to call on any interest payment date at par and accrued interest.

All sales of such bonds or notes by the commissioners shall be in accordance with such regulations as the commission shall adopt and publish. Such bonds or notes shall be sold only to the highest bidder or bidders after notice of sale has been published once each week for three consecutive weeks on the same day of each week, the first of such notices being published at least twenty-one full days before the date of sale, in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the eight most populous counties in the state. Notices shall state the day, hour and place of the sale, the total face value of the bonds or notes to be sold, their denominations, and the dates of their maturities, information relative to the rates of interest that the bonds or notes will bear, and the dates upon which interest will be payable. The commissioners may reject any or all bids and re-advertise and re-offer bonds or notes for sale.

Out of the proceeds of the sale of all bonds or notes, that amount that represents accrued interest, if any, shall be paid into the state treasury and shall be known as the Vietnam Conflict Compensation Bond Retirement Fund, and the balance shall be paid into the state treasury into a fund to be known as the Vietnam Conflict Compensation Fund. The General Assembly may appropriate and cause to be paid into the Vietnam Conflict Compensation Bond Retirement Fund or the Vietnam Conflict Compensation Fund, out of the funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, such amount as is proper for use, upon order of the commissioners for the purposes for which such funds are created. If the General Assembly appropriates any funds to the Vietnam Conflict Compensation Fund prior to the time the commissioners have issued bonds or notes of the aggregate amount of face value authorized in this section, the aggregate amount of face value of bonds or notes so authorized to be issued shall be reduced by the amount of the funds so appropriated.

On or before the first day of July in each calendar year, the commissioners shall certify to the auditor of state the total amount of funds it determines is necessary to provide, together with all other money that will be available in the Vietnam Conflict Compensation Bond Retirement Fund, for the retirement of bonds or notes and the payment of interest in the ensuing calendar year. The auditor of state shall transfer from the state general revenue fund to the Vietnam Conflict Compensation Bond Retirement Fund, without appropriation, an amount equal to the amount so certified. The Vietnam Conflict Compensation Bond Retirement Fund shall be paid out upon order of the commissioners, upon the order of the commissioners for the purpose of the payment, or redemption, in other manner, of said bonds or notes and interest thereon.

The Vietnam Conflict Compensation Fund shall be paid out upon order of the commissioners, upon the appropriation by the General Assembly, in payment of the expenses of administering this section, and as compensation for persons or persons, except persons ordered to active duty for training only, who have served on active duty in the armed forces of the United States at any time between August 5, 1964 and July 1, 1973, or who have served on active duty in the armed forces of the United States in Vietnam service, and who, at the time of commencing such service, was and had been a resident of the state for at least one year immediately preceding the commencement of such service, and (1) who was separated from such service under honorable conditions; (2) who is still in such service, or (3) who has been retired, is entitled to receive compensation of ten dollars for each month during which such person was in active domestic service during the compensable period, fifteen dollars for each month during which such person was in active foreign service, but not Vietnam service, during the compensable period, and twenty dollars for each month during which such person was in active Vietnam service, the maximum amount of cash payable to any qualified applicant, unless such applicant qualifies for a payment based upon missing in action or prisoner of war status or unless such applicant qualifies for a survivor's payment, is five hundred dollars. No compensation shall be paid under this section to any person who has received from another state a bonus or compensation of a like nature or to any person who has not served on active duty in the armed forces of the United States during the compensable period for at least ninety days unless active duty within such compensable period was terminated as a result of injuries or illness sustained in Vietnam service. Compensation for a fraction of a month of service shall be paid on the basis of one-thirtieth of the appropriate monthly amount for each day of such month. Persons medically discharged or medically retired from service due to combat related disabilities sustained during Vietnam service shall be paid five hundred dollars. Service in the Merchant Marine of the United States shall not be considered for the purpose of this section. The term "foreign service" means service in all other places, exclud-

State Attacks Fair Housing Law

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State of Ohio has accused officials in the affluent Columbus suburb of Upper Arlington of trying to thwart anti-discrimination laws on housing.

Atty. Gen. William J. Brown, acting on behalf of the Ohio Civil Rights Commission, filed a motion to intervene in a federal court case, challenging an Upper Arlington ordinance.

The ordinance, adopted early this year after three public hearings, prohibits anyone who is not a purchaser to act as a checker to see if fair housing laws are being violated. It makes the offense a misdemeanor.

Brown said the suit filed Aug. 2 may be of "national significance" because, if the ordinance is upheld, it could be copied by any municipality bent on circumventing municipal, state, or federal fair housing laws.

A city spokesman who asked not to be quoted by name or title "because the case is in court" said the ordinance in question was adopted as part of a larger ordinance of six pages banning discrimination of all kinds.

"There were some people who felt it should be in there because they didn't want people coming into their homes and filing complaints on the basis of false representation," he said. "There are those," he added, "who will say they are going to buy when they have no intention of it."

James M. Friedman, chairman of the Civil Rights Commission, said his agency uses checkers "as a matter of course" and has been since the commission authorized it in a resolution last October. "We are extremely concerned about the Upper Arlington ordinance and its effect on our work," he said.

If the state is allowed to intervene in the federal court class action, it will join as defendants the National Committee Against Discrimination in Housing, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People,

OSU Enrollment Figures Given

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Administrators anticipated an enrollment of about 45,000 as the fall term at Ohio State University began today.

That would be slightly fewer students than the 45,866 on campus a year ago.

Freshman enrollment, however, was expected to pass the 6,250 mark forecast earlier in the year.

Stirle Patterson Given State Post

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Stirle Patterson has been appointed custody administrator at the Correctional Medical Center here.

Patterson, whose appointment was announced by Bennett Cooper, director of the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction, has been with the state agency since 1950. Cooper also announced the appointment of Paul Wolf as his executive assistant.

Wolf served with the Ohio Highway Patrol from 1949 to 1971 and was director of safety and security at the Medical College of Ohio 1971-73.

Nematicides must be applied before or during planting.

“Hey, Tom Sawyer,

this Armstrong Place 'n Press™ Floor is fun to install!”

OMEGA is a new addition to Place 'n Press. Its swirling cobble pattern and overall symmetrical appearance add a new dimension to decorating styling.

It's easy, too. Just peel off the backing paper (each tile has adhesive already on it). Place the tile where you want it. And press. That's all there is to it, Tom.

Putting down a new floor is no longer an all-day job. There are no installation fees, either. And Place 'n Press can go directly over just about any old floor, including terrazzo. In fact, Place 'n Press Tile goes on shelves and counter tops just as easily as it goes on the floor. And looks just as nice.

Place 'n Press Excelon® Tiles are fun, inexpensive, and darn good looking. And with over 25 patterns to choose from, there's sure to be a Place 'n Press room in every home.

(Amended House Joint Resolution No. 13)

JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing to amend section 36 of Article II of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, to authorize agricultural land to be valued for taxation in accordance with its current use.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, three-fifths of the members elected to each house concurring therein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state in the manner prescribed by law at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1973, a proposal to amend section 36 of Article II of the Constitution of Ohio to read as follows:

ARTICLE II
Section 36. Laws may be passed to encourage forestry and agriculture, and to that end areas devoted exclusively to forestry may be exempted, in whole or in part, from taxation. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 2 of Article XII, laws may be passed to provide that land devoted exclusively to agricultural use be valued for real property tax purposes at the current value of such land as for such agricultural use. Laws may also be passed to provide for the deferral or recoupment of any part of the amount of real property tax levied on land valued in accordance with its agricultural use and the dollar amount of real property tax which would have been levied upon such land had it been valued for such year in accordance with section 2 of Article XII. Laws may also be passed to provide for converting into forest reserves such lands or parts of lands as have been or may be forfeited to the state, and to authorize the acquiring of other lands for that purpose; also, to provide for the conservation of the natural resources of the state, including streams, lakes, submerged and swamp lands and the development and regulation of water power and the formation of drainage and conservation districts; and to provide for the regulation of methods of mining, weighing, measuring and marketing coal, oil, gas and all other minerals.

EFFECTIVE DATE AND REPEAL
If adopted by a majority of the electors voting on this amendment the amendment shall take effect January 1, 1974, and existing section 36 of Article II of the Constitution of Ohio shall be repealed from such effective date.

(Amended Senate Joint Resolution No. 9)

JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing to amend section 8 of Article XII of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, relative to the determination of the amount of income exempt from taxation.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, three-fifths of the members elected to each house concurring therein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state in the manner prescribed by law at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1973, a proposal to amend section 8 of Article XII of the Constitution of Ohio to read as follows:

ARTICLE XII
Section 8. Laws may be passed providing for the taxation of incomes, and such taxation may be either uniform or graduated, and may be applied to such incomes as may be designated by law; but a part of each annual income as provided by law may be exempt from such taxation.

EFFECTIVE DATE AND REPEAL
If adopted by a majority of the electors voting on this amendment, the amendment shall take effect immediately, and existing section 8 of Article XII of the Constitution of Ohio shall be repealed from such effective date.

(Amended Senate Joint Resolution No. 30)

JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing to amend sections 1, 4, 5, and 6 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, relative to administrative organization of the courts of Ohio.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, three-fifths of the members elected to each house concurring therein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state in the manner prescribed by law at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1973, a proposal to amend sections 1, 4, 5, and 6 of Article IV of the Constitution of Ohio to read as follows:

ARTICLE IV
Section 1. The judicial power of the state is vested in a supreme court, courts of appeals, courts of common pleas and divisions thereof, and such other courts inferior to the supreme court as may from time to time be established by law.

Section 4. (A) There shall be a court of common pleas and such divisions thereof as may be established by law serving each county of the state. Any judge of a court of common pleas or any division thereof may temporarily hold court in any county. In the interests of the fair, impartial, speedy, and sure administration of justice, each county shall have one or more resident judges, or two or more counties may be combined into districts having one or more judges resident in each district and serving the common pleas courts of all counties in the district, as may be provided by law. Judges serving in such district shall be compensated as judges of the court. In counties or districts having more than one judge of the court of common pleas, the judges shall select one of their number to act as presiding judge, to serve at their pleasure. If the judges are unable because of equal division of the vote to make such selection, the judge having the longest total service on the court of common pleas shall serve as presiding judge until selection is made by vote. The presiding judge shall have such duties and exercise such powers as are prescribed by rule of the supreme court.

(B) The courts of common pleas and divisions thereof shall have such original jurisdiction over all justiciable matters and such powers of review of proceedings of administrative officers and agencies as may be provided by law.

(C) Unless otherwise provided by law, there shall be a probate division of the courts of common pleas as may be provided by law. Judges shall be elected specifically to such probate division and to such other divisions. The judges of the probate division shall be empowered to employ and control the clerks, employees, deputies and referees of such probate division of the common pleas courts.

Section 5. (A) (1) In addition to all other powers vested by this article in the supreme court, the supreme court shall have general superintendence over all courts in the state. Such general superintendence power shall be exercised by the chief justice in accordance with rules promulgated by the supreme court.

(2) The supreme court shall appoint an administrative law director who shall assist the chief justice and who shall serve at the pleasure of the court. The compensation and duties of the administrative director shall be determined by the court.

(3) The chief justice or acting chief justice, as necessity arises shall assign any judge by a court of common pleas or a division thereof temporarily to sit or hold court on any other court of common pleas or division thereof or any court of appeals or shall assign any judge of a court of appeals temporarily to sit or hold court on any other court of appeals or any court of common pleas or division thereof and upon such assignment said judge shall serve in such assigned capacity until the termination of the assignment. Rules may be adopted to provide for the temporary assignment of judges to sit and hold court in any court established by law.

(B) The supreme court shall prescribe rules governing practice and procedure in all courts of the state, which rules shall not be subject to change, or modify any substantive right. Proposed rules shall be filed by the court, not later than the fifteenth day of the January term of each of the general assembly during a regular session thereof, and amendments to any such rules shall be filed no later than the first day of May in that session. Such rules shall take effect on the following first day of July, unless prior to such day the general assembly adopts a concurrent resolution of disapproval. All laws in conflict with such rules shall be void to the extent of their conflict, and no force or effect after such rules have taken effect.

Courts may adopt additional rules concerning local practice and procedure in their respective courts which are not inconsistent with the rules promulgated by the supreme court. The supreme court may make rules to require uniform record keeping for all courts of the state, and shall make rules governing the admission to the practice of law and discipline of persons so admitted.

(C) The chief justice of the supreme court or any judge of that court designated by the chief justice shall pass upon the disqualification of any judge of the courts of appeals or courts of common pleas or division thereof. Rules may be adopted to provide for the hearing of disqualification matters involving judges of courts established by law.

Section 6. (A) (1) The chief justice of the supreme court shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, for terms of not less than six years.

(2) The judges of the courts of appeals shall be elected by the electors of their respective appellate districts, for terms of not less than six years.

(3) The judges of the courts of common pleas and the divisions thereof shall be elected by the electors of the counties, districts, or subdivisions, in which their respective courts are located, for terms of not less than six years, and each judge of a court of common pleas or division thereof shall reside during his term of office in the county, district, or subdivision in which his court is located.

(4) Terms of office of all judges shall begin on the days fixed by law, and laws shall be enacted to prescribe the times and mode of their election.

(B) The judges of the supreme court, courts of appeals, courts of common pleas, and divisions thereof, and of all courts of record established by law, shall, at stated times, receive, for their services such compensation as may be provided by law, which shall not be diminished during their term of office. The compensation of all judges of the supreme court, except that of the chief justice, shall be the same. The compensation of all judges of the courts of appeals shall be the same. The compensation of judges and judges of divisions thereof, and judges of all courts of record established by law shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law. Judges shall receive no fees or perquisites, nor hold any other office of profit or trust, under the authority of the state, or of the United States. All votes for any judge, for any elective office, except a judicial office, under the authority of this state, given by the general assembly, or the people shall be void.

(C) No person shall be elected or appointed to any judicial office, if on or before the day when he shall assume the office and enter upon the discharge of its duties he shall have attained the age of seventy years. Any voluntarily retired judge, or any judge who is retired under this section may be assigned with his consent, by the chief justice or acting chief justice of the supreme court to active duty as a judge and while so serving shall receive the established compensation for such office, computed upon a per diem basis, in addition to any retirement benefits to which he may be entitled. Laws may be passed providing retirement benefits for judges.

SCHEDULE
The above proposal shall be placed on the official ballot at the election herein before referred to in essentially the following manner:

	Yes	No
Shall Sections 1, 4, 5, and 6 of Article IV of the Constitution of Ohio be amended to provide for establishment of divisions of Courts of Common Pleas, to permit the organization of Courts of Common Pleas into districts, and to provide for inclusion of all Judges of Courts of Record within the terms and conditions of existing Article IV, Section 6 (B) relative to prohibiting Judges from holding any other office of profit or trust under authority of this State, or of the United States, prohibiting compensation from being diminished during term of office, and prohibiting Judges from receiving any fees or perquisites.

If a majority of the electors voting on the foregoing proposed amendment, at the election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1973, adopt the same, it shall become part of the Constitution of Ohio and existing sections 1, 4, 5, and 6 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Ohio shall be repealed.

(Amended Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 1)

JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing to adopt section 2 of Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, relative to compensation for military service during the period of the Vietnam conflict through the proceeds from the sale of state general obligation bonds.

California Baptist Church Setting For Marriage Vows

The first Baptist Church of Avenal, Calif., was the setting for the marriage of Miss Beverly Lyn Werner and Mr. Keith Alan Appleton 7 p.m. July 26th. The Rev. John Briles officiated the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve W. Werner of Coalinga, Calif. Parents of the groom are Mrs. Gene Smith of Coalinga and Mr. Gerald Appleton of Fresno, Calif.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length A-line silhouette gown of nylon organza. A wide border of chantilly lace enhanced the hemline and flowed into a chapel train. The matching lace empire bodice featured a high neckline and bishop sleeves. Her elbow illusion veil, edged with lace, was secured by a modified Juliet cap. The bridal bouquet was a large nosegay of white and yellow sprayed baby mums trimmed with silver ribbons.

Miss Brenda Lee Werner attended her twin sister as maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of lime green polyester which featured an A-line skirt, high neckline and short puffed sleeves. She carried a small nosegay of white and yellow baby mums with green and orange ribbons.

Bridesmaids, Miss Brenda Holland, Miss Carol Wacker and Mrs. Reg Hensley all wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor and each carried a nosegay of white and yellow baby mums trimmed with orange, green and yellow ribbons. Miss Janet Hodges, in a gown, identical to the bridesmaids', served as flower girl.

Mr. Jack Savage Jr. stood with the groom as best man. Guests were ushered to their seats by Mr. Ralph Appleton, Mr. Ron d'Artnay and Mr. Craig Brewster. Master Timothy Messer was ring bearer.

Mrs. Jack Savage Jr., accompanied by Miss Doris Yearout at the organ, sang "We've Only Just Begun."

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Avenal High School. Mr. Appleton attended West Hills College and is employed at the PG and E plant.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Avenal Woman's Club.

Mrs. Loring Allen Sr. of Circleville, flew out to attend her granddaughter's wedding. Accompanying her on the trip was the bride's aunt, Mrs. Glenn Whitten of Williamsport. Another aunt, Mrs. Marjorie Vogt of Albany, Ore. and her two daughters, Sharon and Carol drove down for the wedding.

Other out-of-town guests were from Fresno, Huntington Lake, Morro Bay, Clovis, Lenmore and Coalinga, Calif.

The couple spent their honeymoon at the coast and Catalina Island. They now reside in Avenal.

LaSertoma Club Elects Officers For Coming Year

Circleville LaSertoma Club elected new officers during its recent meeting in the home of Mrs. Edward Bohenko, 518 Garden Parkway.

Serving for the coming year are: Mrs. Bruce Stevenson, president; Mrs. Robert Parker, vice president; Mrs. Edward Bohenko, secretary; Mrs. Fred Reichart, treasurer; Mrs. Larry Mets, parliamentarian; Mrs. Atwood Jones, chairman of the board.

The meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag and a poem "Recipe For Happiness," read by Mrs. Mets.

Mrs. Stevenson conducted the business meeting. A motion was passed to initiate a recreational program for interested residents of Circleville Manor Nursing Home. The annual Founders Day Banquet will be held Oct. 10th at Wardell's Party Home.

Mrs. Stevenson introduced Jay Clevenger, administrator of Brooks-Yates School. He showed slides briefing members on the funding and programming of the school.

Co-hostess for the evening was Mrs. Larry Lewis who served refreshments to: Mrs. Bohenko, Mrs. Charles Carle, Mrs. Ralph Garrison, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Mets, Mrs. Reichart, Mrs. Robert Scranton and Mrs. Stevenson.

TEEN QUEEN — Miss Karen Miller is shown after she was crowned Miss Ohio National Campers and Hikers Association Teen Queen during the state campout in Woodsfield. Karen, representing the Roundtown Roamers Camping Club, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Miller, Amanda. She is a 1973 graduate of Amanda-Clearcreek High School and is now attending Ohio University where she is majoring in music education.

Local Campers Attend State Camp-Out

Thirteen families of the Roundtown Roamers Camping Club traveled to the state-wide campout in Woodsfield last weekend. The campers participated in games of all types, scenic and historical tours, project sales and square dancing while there.

Activities including the Miss Teen Queen Contest were selected for the younger set.

The club's entry won the Miss Teen Queen Contest. Miss Karen Miller daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Miller, Amanda, will represent the Roundtowners and the state in the National Campers and Hikers Association Teen Queen Contest in Moultrie, Ga. next year.

Those attending the campout were: Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Sweptson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ramey, Mr. and Mrs. George Ramey, Jimmy and John, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ramey, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Miller and Karen, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Kempton, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hannawalt, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Anderson, Christine, Cheryl, Dave and Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Arledge, Mr. Harold Bowers, Patty, Debbie and Joe, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Archer, Lori and Eric, and Wes Edstrom.

Cut Cables Cost Life In Marion

MARION, Ohio (AP)—The sheriff's department here says a 61-year-old Marion man died of a heart attack after cut telephone cables kept his wife from calling for help.

John Shambaugh suffered the attack about 2 a.m., a sheriff's deputy said. The neighborhood was without telephone service at the time.

A neighbor finally was able to summon help, but Shambaugh died in a hospital about 5:30 a.m.

General Telephone Co. reported 939 cables have been cut and damage has exceeded $1 million since operators and repairmen walked off the job July 16.

Military Doctors On Way Out?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration has launched a study of medical services for the military, prompting Defense Department fears that military doctors may be replaced by civilians.

Pentagon officials said they are also concerned that some 4.5 million military dependents and retirees who now receive almost free medical care may have to turn to the civilian community and pay full price for their treatment.

Heavy Rains Bring Floods In Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heavy rains lashed the Southern Plains and parts of the Midwest Monday night and early today causing flash floods in some areas.

Scattered thundershowers diminished over the Atlantic states, and skies over the northwest quarter of the nation also cleared.

Flooding occurred in Kansas City where 4 inches of rain fell in 12 hours.

Tornadoes touched down late Monday in northeastern Oklahoma and southeastern Kansas causing extensive damage to property and injuring six persons.

Large hail pounded an area northeast of Chanute, Kan., a section also hit by a tornado.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 31 at Houlton, Maine, to 82 at Key West, Fla.

Gas Stations May Close

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — At least 70 per cent of the service stations in Ohio will close if a national protest is staged against Phase IV price controls, an official of the Central Ohio Gasoline Dealers Association said Monday.

But, Dave Pickney, COGDA vice president, said the closings would depend on individual dealers decisions. He said the association would not officially call for closings.

Pickney said the association's 500 dealers are waiting word from the Cost of Living Council on anticipated increases in retail gasoline ceiling prices.

The council earlier said it would lift the ceiling one or two cents. It said not to expect formal action on the increase until after today.

A rash of service station closings nationwide was reported after some gasoline suppliers announced one to two-cent increases in wholesale prices last week. Under Phase IV, dealers cannot pass the increase to consumers.

Find Prisoner In Penitentiary

MOUNDSVILLE, W.Va. (AP) — For three days troopers searched the state for Charles Luther Kyle, who they believed had escaped from the West Virginia Penitentiary in the back of a truck.

The found him Monday in, of all places, the penitentiary. Authorities said the 19-year-old St. Albans resident, serving 1 to 10 years for grand larceny, apparently never left the prison grounds, but hid in a work area.

The study was ordered in July by Roy Ash, director of the Office of Management and Budget, and a copy of his memo outlining what the study should contain has been obtained by The Associated Press.

"The military medical care system traditionally has used military personnel and the facilities to care for servicemen and their dependents," Ash wrote, adding that free or nominally priced care of all kinds has come to be expected by the families of all 2.2 million members of the military services.

"Three factors—the all-volunteer force, the recent emphasis on improved management and the administration's commitment to an equitable health system for all Americans—suggests that these traditional assumptions should be reexamined," Ash said.

Ash set up a steering committee to study the military health apparatus which spends $2.4 billion annually on medical care.

In creating the steering committee, Ash said President Nixon "is concerned with reducing Department of Defense overhead and support costs while maintaining our overall force structure and military capability."

There is a shortage of military doctors which is expected to become critical over the next few years in the absence of the military draft.

"Civilianizing military medical services also has been proposed to offset the military doctor shortage," Ash said in his memo, without explaining how medical care would be provided in a wartime or other emergency situation.

Among the other alternatives proposed are:

- Cutting off dependents and retirees from the military health care system.
- Requiring military men and their families to pay for specialized services like eye care, dental or psychiatric treatment and some prescription drugs.

—Eliminate some services altogether.

—Make direct cash payments and allow servicemen and their families to seek out medical care on their own.

—Or adopt a medical insurance program run by the Pentagon, but similar to Blue Cross-Blue Shield.

"Wise laundry habits save money and valuable gas."

"These washing and drying suggestions will help you to conserve gas energy. And that means less gas to pay for. As our nation faces an energy crisis, we must use all our natural resources wisely. I urge you to take part in conserving energy with your very next wash."

Betty Newton

Automatic washers use lots of hot water. A full load makes the best use of water and the gas that makes it hot. So avoid partial loads, which waste both these resources and the money that pays for them.

Washing a full load repays your efforts again when you dry your clothes in your gas dryer. A full load makes the most efficient use of your dryer. Don't waste your money and gas on partial loads.

But don't overload your dryer, either. If the air can't circulate properly, it reduces the efficiency designed into your gas dryer. Use a full load, but nothing more, to get the most for your money.

And don't overdry. Synthetics and other light clothes don't take as much time or heat to dry. Follow your instruction book for proper drying times.

Wipe the inside of the tub with a damp cloth and clean the lint filter each time you use your dryer. Check your operating manual for instructions on keeping your appliance in top shape.

New Gas Appliances

If you're thinking of replacing your old gas dryer or water heater, remember you'll continue to get the gas you need. And the new, modern gas appliances help conserve gas because they're more efficient.

Gas is precious . . . pure energy . . . use it wisely.

Chamberlain Considers ABA Offer

NEW YORK (AP) — Basketball has become a $500,000-a-year bore for Wilt Chamberlain.

"It's true that I don't get any fun out of training any more, and I even find it tough to get ready for game after game," the 7-foot-11 millionaire ball dunker acknowledges.

"I have done a lot of soul searching on the matter. Frankly, I just don't know what is the alternative for me."

The 37-year-old all-time great of the National Basketball Association debated today alternatives open to few men—whether to play another year for the Los Angeles Lakers of the NBA or accept a $600,000 offer from the San Diego Conquistadors of the rival American Basketball Association.

"Money is not a factor—I've just got to decide whether I want to continue playing basketball. It has taken most of my life, but do I owe my whole life to it?"

"Maybe I'd rather be a civilian."

Chamberlain flew into New York Monday to plug his autobiography, which is appropriately entitled "WILT," with the intriguing sub-title, "Just Like Any Other 7-Foot Black Millionaire Who Lives Next Door."

Cornelius Greene Still Top Quarterback

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Sophomore Cornelius Greene continues to run ahead of Greg Hare, the gimpy-legged incumbent, as Ohio State's quarterback.

"Greene's still No. 1," Hayes told writers at his weekly news conference Monday as the defending Big Ten co-champions launched drills for invading Texas Christian in an inter-sectional contest Saturday.

Student tickets will also be available at all Circleville city schools.

Reds Nail Down NL West

By HAL ROCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

...and then, there was one. The third of baseball's four divisional races was settled Monday night when the Cincinnati Reds nailed down their third National League West crown in four seasons by defeating San Diego 2-1.

That leaves only the NL East still undecided with five teams still alive in the season's final week. Pittsburgh remains one-half game behind the New York Mets there after splitting a twilight doubleheader with Montreal.

The second place Pirates lost the opener to the Expos 5-4 but took the nightcap 3-0. Elsewhere in the NL, it was Houston 10, San Francisco 6. In the American League, Boston walloped Detroit 14-0, California beat Texas 10-9 and Minnesota nipped Oakland 7-6.

The Reds took the traditional champagne shower in stride after clinching the NL West. "I think we're more subdued this time," said catcher Johnny Bench. "We're waiting for the third step—the World Series—rather than getting excited over the first one."

The Reds also won West titles and NL pennants in 1970 and 1972 only to be beaten in the Series both times.

One guy who did get worked up over the clinching was pitcher Dick Baney, who hasn't been through this before. "It's the ultimate," said Baney, "the day I dreamed about as a kid."

Baney, who spent the first part of this season being cut by two minor league clubs, got to pitch the clincher and earned the victory on home runs by Tony Perez and Andy Kosco.

The Reds' clinching victory was their 58th in 81 games since July 1 when they were 11 games behind.

Expos 5-0, Pirates 4-3

Willie Stargell homered in each game as Pittsburgh split with Montreal, losing the first game 5-4 but taking the nightcap 3-0. The two homers gave the Pirate slugger 44, tops in the majors. He has had 32 hits in 90 at bats with eight homers and 24 runs batted in this month.

Their first game loss left the Pirates even in that important category with idle New York. The Mets have six games remaining and the Pirates, who have one less victory than New York, have seven to play.

Mike Marshall nailed down the Expos' first game victory, picking up his 30th save of the season when he retired Al Oliver with runners at second and third in the ninth inning.

Astros 10, Giants 6

Lee May and Cesar Cedeno crashed home runs, leading Houston to a 10-6 victory over San Francisco. May's homer was his 28th and Cedeno's three-run shot was No. 24 for him.

Jerry Reuss earned the victory with ninth inning help from Ken Forsch.

Red Sox 14, Tigers 0

Boston moved one game ahead of Detroit in the struggle for second place in the American League East, walloping the Tigers 14-0.

Little Braves Blank Aces

The Logan Elm reserve team defeated Amanda-Clearcreek reserves, 36-0, Monday on the Aces Gridiron.

The Braves scored in the first quarter on a 50-yard pass from quarterback Bob Sargent to John Eanes. After being set back to the 40 on penalties, the little Braves converted the extra points on a pass from Sargent to Phil Manson. In the second quarter, Dale Reynolds took a screen pass from Sargent and scampered 40 yards to score. The try for the extra points was no good.

In the fourth quarter, Reynolds scored from three yards out and also carried for the two point conversion.

Then Mark Skinner intercepted a pass and ran it 30 yards for a touchdown. A Sargent to Manson pass accounted for the two points.

The final touchdown came on a 40-yard pass play with Manson catching Sargent's aerial. The try for the extra points failed.

The little Braves have a 1-1 record and host Lancaster Fisher Monday.

Landry Chalks Up 100th Grid Win

DALLAS (AP) — Bob Lilly and Lee Roy Jordan gave their leader a cake and a game ball celebrating Tom Landry's 100th victory as a National Football League coach, but the Dallas Cowboys' mentor couldn't help feeling compassion for the guy in the other dressing room.

Landry's Cowboys mauled New Orleans 40-3 Monday night like teams used to batter Dallas back in the expansion year of 1960, when the Cowboys had an 0-11-1 record.

In the other locker room, New Orleans Coach John North sat slumped over his bench, still looking for his first NFL victory after two tries.

"I know what he (North) must feel, but they'll eat somebody," Landry said. "He's got a tough go ahead of him. I went through the same thing. But if his owners have confidence in him and get some players, he could do it too."

Landry, who now stands 100-76-6 in his 13th year as the only coach Dallas has ever had, said of attaining the century mark, "It's quite a milestone to reach. I'm just glad to be around that long."

"Longevity is more important than anything. I'm glad the owners stuck with me through the lean years and gave me the opportunity to win."

Landry, who is now the 10th NFL coach in the 100-victories ledger,

Cincinnati Reds Open Playoff Ticket Sales

Tommy Harper's grand slam home run paced the Red Sox attack with Carl Yastrzemski and Reggie Smith also tagging Boston home runs.

California 10, Texas 9

Lee Stanton's pinch double capped a two-out ninth inning rally that carried California past Texas, 10-9.

The Rangers had scored seven runs in the top of the ninth to take the lead but the Angels loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with two out. A pair of walks to Richie Scheinblum and Charlie Sands forced home two runs before Stanton delivered the decisive hit.

Alex Johnson had three singles and three RBIs for Texas.

Twins 7, A's 6

Minnesota roared from behind with five runs in the seventh inning, two of them on a double by George Mitterwald, to overtake Oakland 7-6.

Reggie Jackson blasted a three-run homer for the A's, his 32nd of the season but first since Aug. 22.

Oakland Manager Dick Williams, preparing for a possible World Series when his pitchers will have to bat, used four of them as pinch hitters. Catfish Hunter singled, Ken Holtzman walked, Darold Knowles delivered a sacrifice fly and Vida Blumgt.

Ohio Prep Football Rankings Released

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Massillon, Columbus Watterson and Marion Pleasant, all of whom made the first state playoffs last fall, are the first state-wide division leaders this season in The Associated Press high school football ratings.

Massillon, in Class AAA, and Marion Pleasant, which has won the last two mythical Class A crowns, were runaway leaders in the first balloting by sports writers and broadcasters. Massillon's Tigers, who achieved their 500th career victory earlier this season, piled up 203 points to 136 for runnerup Warren Western Reserve, the 1972 big school playoff champion. Massillon was bumped in the Class AAA semifinals last fall by Cincinnati Princeton.

Pleasant, a Marion County powerhouse on a 41-game winning streak, came within one point of tripling its margin over No. 2 Sugar Grove Berne Union in Class A. The Spartans, the playoff champions, had 185 points to 63 for the Fairfield County runnerup.

Watterson, beaten in the Class AA playoff championship game by Akron St. Vincent-St. Mary in 1972, edged Washington Court House 90-86 for the lead in the middle division.

All of the leaders are off to 3-0-0 starts this season.

Every member of the top ten carries unblemished records except Barborton, 2-1-0 and tenth in Class AAA, and Akron St. Vincent-St. Mary, fourth in Class AA with a 2-1-0 mark.

Cincinnati Moeller was a distant third in Class AAA and then, in order, came Steubenville, Akron Garfield, Fremont Ross, Zanesville, Newark, Findlay and Barborton.

The Class AA scramble was wide open with 22 points separating the top five-rated teams, Watterson, Washington Court House, Minerva, St. Vincent-St. Mary and Ironton.

Dayton Jefferson was No. 6 in Class AA, followed by Cincinnati Reading, Lisbon Beaver, Nelsonville-York and Bellaire.

Portsmouth Notre Dame, a former AP state champion, was third in Class A. Lorain Clearview and Newark Catholic, another former titleholder, were tied for fourth.

Kirtland was sixth, Cory Rawson and McDonald tied for seventh and Ada and East Canton deadlocked for the No. 9 spot among the small schools.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Here's how a statewide panel of sports writers and broadcasters rates Ohio high school football teams in the opening Associated Press poll of the season (10 points for first to 1 point for 10th):

Tough Field For Player Classic Set

TURNBERRY, Scotland (AP) — A tough tour-tested cadre of American pros—most of them members of the victorious Ryder Cup team—rank among the favorites for Europe's richest golf tournament, the $150,000 John Player Classic.

Among them are Arnold Palmer, Gay Brewer, Tom Weiskopf, Johnny Miller, Tommy Aaron, Chi Chi Rodriguez and Charles Coody.

Dave Hill was supposed to be in the U.S. aggregation, but the controversial American star withdrew Monday because of injury and illness.

The 72-hole event begins Wednesday on the 7,070-yard par-71 Turnberry golf course, a windswept seaside links just off the Irish Sea.

Opposing the American millionaires is a formidable array of international talent in this event, which includes only 36 players in its starting field.

Among those are deft little Gary Player of South Africa, defending titleholder Bob Charles of New Zealand, and all but one of Britain's Ryder Cup team, beaten just last week by the Americans at Muirfield on the opposite coast of Scotland.

Trevino Sets Ohio Date

KINGS MILLS, Ohio (AP) — Lee Trevino announced today he will play in the $125,000 Ohio Kings Island Open golf tournament next week at the Jack Nicklaus Golf Center.

Trevino's announcement gives the new PGA tour tournament three of the top four money winners this season.

Nicklaus, the No. 2 money earner, and Tom Weiskopf, third on the 1973 list, already announced they would play in the tournament Oct. 4-7.

Super Mex currently is fourth on the money winning list with $195,767 and, along with Billy Casper, Arnold Palmer, Bruce Crampton and Nicklaus, has won more than $1 million in his tour career.

Trevino signed personally with PGA commissioner Joe Dey during the Ryder Cup Matches in Muirfield, Scotland, last week, assuring he would appear in the Ohio Kings Island Open.

Bengals Vindicated On Offensive Power

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The Cincinnati Bengals were scheduled to return to practice today with the offensive team vindicated in the eyes of Coach Paul Brown.

"We moved the ball well," Brown said Monday after watching films of Sunday's 28-10 victory over the Houston Oilers.

Detroit Pistons Top Cleveland Cavaliers

BIG RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Back from an injury-plagued season, Detroit guard Stu Lantz scored the Pistons a 102-92 National Basketball Association exhibition victory over the Cleveland Cavaliers.

Lantz, who suffered through a back ailment and a foot injury, and then was knocked out the final half of the 1972-73 season with a fractured left wrist, tossed in 13 of his points in the final period as the Pistons overcame a 77-76 Cleveland lead.

Three Brooklyn, N.Y., athletes are on the Iowa Hawkeye football team. They are split end Brian Rollins, defensive tackle Tommy Kirkland and fullback Doug Nelson.

CARROLL RICHTER'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: After some delays and obstacles in a.m., you find yourself later very much in tune with those you like and able to handle matters well. Be cooperative.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Handle personal affairs early so you can later sit down with an associate and plan future operations. Some civic venture could prove helpful, interesting.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Make everything around you more artistic and charming, functional. A co-worker could prove difficult early, but later cooperates.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Not good for financial things, but excellent for the personal. Put your finest talents to work. Don't permit another to step all over you.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Listen more to what kin have to suggest, since your ideas are a little off now. Take care of basic matters and show your practical side.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You feel below par, but perk up and you get much accomplished. Telephone friends, visit, and make business calls in person that can be profitable. Entertain in p.m.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You are bent on getting financial affairs handled well. Don't permit some emotional individual to waste your time. Cut expenses with improved budget.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You are charming, magnetic and can accomplish much both in business and socially, so get to work and play early. Evening is particularly happy.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Go along with present set-up, as untold ventures could lead you into real trouble. Any data available gives you understanding.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Be with good pals who are helpful and become a happier person. Discuss future goals and get their advice. Don't overspend.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You can certainly get the backing now from higher-ups you need for career purposes. Be active in civic affairs. A blunt person is really your best friend.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Show new contacts you are willing to help them socially or in business and gain their goodwill. Meet with individuals of different background from yours, and get data.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Use intuitive faculties to accomplish much. Don't go off on fun tangents that could be costly and unsatisfactory. Enjoy good friends in p.m.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those young people who is naturally conservative, but has the wisdom to know with whom to ally self for some mutual activities that are profitable. Will get an early start in making money. Teach early to control the emotions, otherwise the fine promise here will be lessened causing unhappiness. Teach cleanliness while young, and give good religious training in the home. "The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP)—This is the season television rediscovered the word "new." CBS has the "New Perry Mason" and "New Dick Van Dyke" series and it may have prompted ABC to feel that no news is bad news.

So ABC tonight is starting the "New Temperatures Rising" series. Last year it was called "Temperatures Rising." Whoever says TV doesn't progress needs his head candled.

The show still is about a staff of zanies at a hospital. However, all but one of last year's inmates have fled or were replaced. Clevon Little is the sole survivor, having graduated from goofy intern status to that of a serious surgeon who cuts up now and then.

James Whitmore is succeeded as the star and hospital administrator by Paul Lynde, whose own ABC series bombed last year. Lynde now plays "Dr. Mercy," the quality of which is strained on tonight's debut show.

First, this hopeful note: there are faint signs the tinkering with "Temperatures" format could make the series funny later on, but only if the writing improves.

The show now wisely leaves most of the mugging to Lynde and no longer insists that Each Regular is Whacky. It also has gotten slightly tart in tone. It slips in a few zingies at the healing business, none of which will be appreciated by the American Medical Association or hospital bureaucrats if continued.

However, the unsavory jabs

The premiere plot concerns a sneak thief in a bathrobe and a cowardly patient facing an appendectomy. It also spends a lot of time proving that Dr. Mercy has a loveable, eccentric mother who owns the hospital and keeps him jumping much of the time.

The sneak thief, who goes about filching patients' watches and jewelry, is almost caught in the cowardly patient's room. He hops in the bed of the patient, who has hopped in a closet to avoid the surgeon's knife.

A nurse arrives. The thief is sedated and whisked to the operating room. His healthy appendix is removed by Little. The mixup is discovered, Little investigates and then the thief is discovered.

It is all feeble stuff, but the cast is vastly improved and the new approach portends better things ahead.

If not, this medicine show will be just another blue cross we'll have to bear until Marcus Welby shows up later Tuesday night.

Brandt Continues Detente Policy With East

EDITOR'S NOTE: Chancellor Willy Brandt goes before the United Nations on Wednesday to speak as the leader of West Germany, which became a U.N. member only a week ago. In this dispatch, an AP writer traces the history of Brandt's Ostpolitik, the policy of reconciliation that was a key factor in bringing West and East Germany into the United Nations.

Kissinger, Russians Hold Talks

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger has told high Soviet officials that the prospect for a new Soviet-American trade relationship remains in doubt because of Moscow's treatment of Jews.

According to U.S. officials, Kissinger told Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko on Monday night that congressional opposition to granting the Russians most favored nation status has not relented due to concern over the plight of the Jews.

The assessment came during a 2½-hour dinner Kissinger gave to Gromyko and Anatoly F. Dobrynin, Soviet ambassador to Washington.

American officials said Soviet harassment of intellectuals also was discussed.

The secretary was said to have

BERLIN (AP) — Chancellor Willy Brandt told the West Germans almost a year ago: "Not even the Americans could prevent the Berlin Wall, and I cannot conjure it away."

But Brandt has circumvented the barrier across Berlin with a foreign policy that two years ago earned him the Nobel Peace Prize and last week helped bring both Germanys into the United Nations.

stated that this issue was increasing doubts of Congress and the American public about granting trade concessions to the Russians.

The officials said the issue was discussed in a convivial manner. They said the Russians were aware of the seriousness of the American concern as well as the official U.S. determination to keep the discussion private.

To bring about an official public confrontation would be counterproductive at this stage, one U.S. source said.

Kissinger and Gromyko also touched briefly on arms limitation, European troop cuts and the European Security Conference.

Today Kissinger turned from the troublesome Soviet trade issue to another problem area — U.S. relations

He calls it Ostpolitik, a policy of rapprochement with the Soviet bloc while West Germany remains America's staunchest ally in Europe and an integral part of the North Atlantic alliance.

Some observers say Ostpolitik began with the Berlin Wall in 1961 because Brandt, then mayor of West Berlin, realized there was a limit to what the with the Arab nations. He invited leaders of 19 Arab states and the Arab League to lunch to discuss their concerns, particularly their conflict with Israel.

American officials said the secretary intended to keep the talks general and would not propose new American moves in the Middle East.

A similar assessment was made in Cairo, where the semiofficial newspaper Al Ahram reported that Kissinger had told the Arab delegations at the United Nations, "I will confine myself to hearing and only hearing" until Israel's national elections late next month.

This fit in with the slow development of new U.S. attitudes toward the Middle East despite remarks by President Nixon earlier this month that a solution to the Arab-Israeli issue was of "the highest priority."

Urge Open Presidency

GRANVILLE, Ohio (AP) — The U.S. needs an open presidency with a new system of checks and balances, Tom Wicker, associate editor and former Washington bureau head of the New York Times told a Denison University audience Monday night.

"We've permitted an imperial government and an imperial Presidency to happen," Wicker said. "We must take down the White House fence."

The Times editor said the power of the presidency had become "immensely bloated" in the years since World War II.

Wicker suggested that two steps toward a new system of checks and balances might be to "make all major jobs created by the President subject to Senate confirmation," and to begin "curbing the President's war powers."

"For the last 25 years our institutions and processes have been tending toward the Watergate," he said.

The main effect of Watergate has been "a subtle change in the attitude of American people who had put blind trust in the President. They have been disillusioned," Wicker added.

Vocational Ag Land Judging Contest Oct. 3 At Westfall

David Bolender, Chairman of the Pickaway Soil and Water Conservation District announced plans for the 1973 District 10 County Vocational Agricultural Land Judging Contest to be held on October 3, at Westfall High School.

This contest serves as a climax to the vocational agricultural classroom study on soils, land capability, and soil conservation practices. As a part of the contest, each vocational agriculture department selects a group of students to compete with students from other county vocational agriculture departments in evaluating soil and making recommendations for its best management, its capabilities for agricultural crop production, and the conservation practices which should be practiced in its management.

Winners of the county contest are eligible for competition in the vocational agriculture district contest composed of soil judging teams from several counties. District winners then are eligible for state competition, and the state winner eventually enters national competition. Awards at the county contest are sponsored by Pickaway SWCD and will be awarded to the winning school and individuals at the Pickaway SWCD Annual Meeting scheduled at Teays Valley High School 6:30 p.m. Nov. 1. Dean Roy Kottman will be the annual meeting speaker.

Trophies for district competition and scholarships of $100, $200, and $300 for high state individuals, and expenses of the winning state team to the Oklahoma National contest are provided by the Ohio Federation of Federal Land Bank Offices.

The land judging contest and preparatory classroom study provides an opportunity to over 13,000 students in Ohio Vocational Agriculture classes to become acquainted with soil and water conservation, to practice soil classification and to make soil conservation and water management recommendations.

Larceny Reports Investigated

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies investigated two larcenies occurring over the weekend.

William L. Davis, Route 1, Mt. Sterling reported a calf missing from his farm.

Davis said the calf was on the farm when he counted the herd 6 p.m. Sunday, but was not there at feeding time 8:30 a.m. Monday.

The calf's value was estimated to be $200.

Deputy Billy Huffman investigated the report.

Dana Griffith, 521 Mays Court, reported underground electric wires were cut at a house under construction in Wintergreen Hills.

The incident took place sometime between Sept. 19 and Sept. 22.

Investigating officer was Deputy James Deal.

Police Officers In Blazers Focus On Social Work

MENLO PARK, Calif. (AP) — "Police freeze," says a nattily dressed police officer. He levels a shotgun at two young burglars who are stunned more by the tense courtesy than the presence of the law.

That polite greeting, which police say occurred, sets the hang-loose tone for the 37-member Menlo Park Police Department that wears blazers and does as much social work as cop work.

Police in this San Francisco Peninsula community of 30,000 also emphasize a business-like organization, talking instead of arresting, referrals to drug and welfare agencies and Alcoholics Anonymous.

"Eighty per cent of police work is in the area of social services," says Chief Victor I. Cizancas, 36, a former Marine who keeps a bust of Socrates in his office.

Cizancas started the Menlo Park police revolution five years ago after studying federal reports issued in the wake of urban rioting.

Cizancas, who stands 6-foot-4, said he decided he could apply liberalized police principles to this city that stretches from spacious homes near the Stanford University campus to bleak bungalows in the 6,000-person black community.

He said nearly half of the members of the force resigned in the first two years because they couldn't accept the demise of a rigid chain of command.

Cizancas, who came to the city's attention for his cool handling of riots in 1967, dressed his officers in green or gold blazers bearing a modest patch with the tiny embroidered words, "Police."

They pack pistols, mace, handcuffs and extra bullets but aren't to show them unless it is absolutely necessary. "I'm a great believer in 'clothes maketh the man,'" Cizancas says. "And the community seems to think police are more intelligent when they are out of uniform."

Cizancas abolished the normal police command chain of captains, lieutenants and sergeants in favor of a businesslike approach of officer, agent, manager, director and chief. An operations manager heads three patrol teams that emphasize group problem solving.

Cambodian Highway Cut

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Khmer Rouge insurgents cut Phnom Penh's highway to the coast again today, shelled a supply convoy on the Mekong River and attacked a power plant in a suburb of the capital.

Highway 4, leading to Kompong Som, the country's only seaport, was cut at Trapeang Kraloeung, 45 miles southwest of Phnom Penh. It was reopened last week for the first time in three weeks, and since then convoys of 150 to 200 trucks had been making the run from the coast every day.

Three river freighters and three fuel tankers arrived in Phnom Penh from South Vietnam Monday night after braving insurgent fire on the Mekong 51 miles south of Phnom Penh. The shooting started a fire on one of the freighters, but no casualties were reported.

Col. Am Rong, the Cambodian military spokesman, said insurgent sappers slipped into Takhmau, two miles south of Phnom Penh, and attacked the Chak Angre power plant with mortars and 75mm recoilless rifles. Some persons were wounded and one generator was damaged, he reported.

It was the closest attack to Phnom Penh since sappers blew up part of the telecommunications transmission station four miles west of the city in early August.

Price Increases For Steel OKd

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The federal Cost of Living Council has approved price increases averaging 2.4 per cent or $4.50 a ton on flat-rolled and strip products produced by U.S. Steel Corp. and other major steelmakers.

The increases are about one-half the amount requested by the industry and will become effective Oct. 1, the council said Monday.

A second-step increase, also about 2.4 per cent, will be permitted next Jan. 1, according to the council's ruling on steel prices earlier this month.

Bicycles Stolen

Charles McGowan, 327 S. Scioto St., notified city police that his bicycle was stolen from the back yard Monday.

A bicycle belonging to Bob McNamara, 923 S. Washington St., was stolen from the yard sometime Monday.
